Columbus Father Huber Assembly 809, Columbus Ohio
APRIL 2010

Faithful Navigator, Sir Knight Steve Skinner

Dear Brothers,

If you are reading this it means the newsletter is back in business. After a little tweaking and fine tuning it seems we are ready to resume publishing.

And so, with not much to say; I'll simply wish all of you a Blessed Easter and very warm spring.

Best Regards,

Steve Skinner; DD, PGK, FN.

Mrs. Helen Hurst and her son Charles posed for this picture with Members of Assembly 809 and Fr. Simon, who is from Pakistan and was presented with Brother John's Memorial chalice during Mass on Saturday, March 20 at Corpus Christi Church.

The Captain's Corner

Dear Brothers and Ladies

We'll be gathering for the Top of the Month Dinner on Tuesday April 6th, @ 6:30 pm at The Columbus Mannerchor. Our dear friend, Sue Gall, has taken over management of the restaurant in an attempt to reconnect it with the community (it used to be a private, members only club). We'd like to assist her in this effort by having many of you join us for this month's TOTM. The address is 966 S. High St. which is south of Whittier, on the eastside of High St. with it's own private parking lot. Please contact us with questions, and RSVP to Mike (mshuter3@columbus.rr.com or 614-444-3448)). There is NO THEME for April's Pot Luck at the Assembly meeting!! The Captain's table will provide ham, cheese and bread/buns for sandwiches. Please bring any side dish that you'd like to share. (Carole's green deviled eggs were a big hit last month).

Sir Knights, PLEASE share this information with your ladies, we'd love to have them join us for these activities.

Captain Mike Shuter & Lady Cindy
