From the Navigator, Sir Knight Carl Emmenegger

Greetings Sir Knights and Ladies,

"T'is the season to be jolly, joyful and full of good spirit as the songs say but for some the season may not be so bright especially for those that are experiencing hardship in different ways. For the rest of us we can be thankful for the presents, the family dinners and the wonderful joy that comes at Christmas time. A lot of this joy comes from giving to others in all of our special ways . . . For me, I can't pass up the Salvation Army man ringing his bell . . . and for many of us in the giving of gifts to the less fortunate as well as helping others in need.

"T'is the season also to remember what it's mainly about . . . the Birth of our Lord Jesus Christ . . . It's seems that each year more and more emphasis is placed on the commercial aspect of Christmas. We need to somehow reverse this trend. The Columbus Chapter Knights of Columbus has and is responding to this challenge. Just look at all the billboards throughout the city. Over 18 different councils have participated and the rental space is not cheap. A list of billboard locations are on the next page, so watch for them in your vicinity.

Our own Christmas gathering is on our regularly scheduled meeting night, December 20th and promises to be good eating along with all the camaraderie. Don't forget the gift exchange . . . more on this from the Captain and his Lady.

Wishing All a Very
MERRY CHRISTMAS and a
Happy but Safe and a
Prosperous NEW YEAR

SK Carl Emmenegger, & Lady Greta

Faithful Captain: SK Greg Hollyfield

There was a nice turnout at the Old Bag of Nails on Monday, Dec. 3rd. for the Top-of-the-Month Dinner. January T.O.M. falls on the 2nd, the day after New Years, so we decided not to schedule for this month. Plan on meeting with us in February, haven't picked the restaurant yet.

From the Captain's Lady, Louetta Hollyfield

Hello Knights & Ladies:

I would like to thank all of you for making our Thanksgiving dinner so special. We had lots of delicious food. I think everyone had a nice time. December 20th will be the next meeting and we will have our Christmas dinner, plus gift exchange. For each person who wants to participate in the gift exchange please bring a gift of a $10.00 value.

I will be serving ham and a side dish of Macaroni and cheese. Please bring a dish to share. Hope to see all of you on Thursday, Dec. 20th.

Thank you,
Lady Louetta

Christmas Wish List
